

Dyslexia Resources

Personal Experience (Emily, Meredith)

- Dianne Craft (right brained learners/dyslexia homeschool curriculum from Emily's cousin)

Neuroscience (Dr. Christine Durrett):

- "Sold a Story" Podcast
- Launch Learning Clinic - Manhattan, KS (Contact information; pre-test for Launch available upon request - email Jaelyn; math intervention also available)
- Fundamental Learning Center - Wichita, KS (screenings; classes for parents to learn more about Dyslexia and also training to become a dyslexia teacher/tutor)
- Florida Center for Reading Research
- UFLI (University of Florida Literacy Institute)
- M.A. Rooney Foundation
- Barton Reading Program
- Marilyn Zecher - Math (multisensory math)
- Books:
 - Home Schooling Children with Special Needs
 - Homeschooling Your Struggling Learner
 - Staying Sane as You Homeschool
 - Homeschooling the Child with ADD \(or Other Special Needs\)

Teaching Tips (Carrie Ellis):

- Reading Worksheets (a website for leveled reading passages in the 50-200 word range)
- Understood (an excellent website for dyslexia/ADHD/dyscalculia with many helpful podcasts, resources, etc.)
- Letter sound decks - (can be made at home; consistency is key)
- Saxon Phonics and Spelling - (A curriculum that might be similar to what Carrie taught about. Melissa Basel has extensive experience with the previous version of this curriculum and would be a helpful resource)
- Book Series (important to ensure characters are older than your reader)
 - Cam Jansen book series
 - A to Z Mystery series
 - Jake Maddox book series
- Remember...something that takes a non-dyslexic brain 1-3 exposures to remember will take a child who has dyslexia 30+ exposures to remember it. God created them beautifully!
